Gov. Matheson visits local

Democrat fund raising

2 Oct 1980

Governor Scott Matheson was present at a special Democratic Fund Raising Breakfast, which took place in Heber City on Sept. 27. The event was held at the Wagon Wheel located on Main Street and the meal was provided by Joe Van Wagoner, who is the owner of the restaurant.

Approximately forty people, including city and county officials, attended the $15 a plate function that was planned by Dick Jones, Democratic Fund Raising Chairman of Wasatch County and Floyd Hansen, the Heber City Democratic Chairman.

Wasatch County Commissioner Raymond Jiacoletti introduced Governor Matheson who complimented the public servants of Wasatch County. "I have my strongest personal relationships here over any other county. The atmosphere in this great valley is warm and positive," he said. Matheson proceeded to give his endorsement of Jiacoletti in the upcoming election.

"This election will be a critical one because of Utah's growth rate. In four years time this state has grown by 192,000 people, therefore those elected must offer a commitment not just a contribution." Matheson furthermore stated, that he is anxious to continue serving as governor, and that he will continue to give his all to the office if re-elected.

A belt was given to Governor Matheson, which was made by Dick Jones, and a corsage was presented to Matheson for his wife, Norma, who was unable to attend.

Dear Editor: Through this column, I want to make people aware of an important meeting, the County Democratic Convention, April 18, (tomorrow), at 7 p.m., at the Wasatch Middle School, and thank you in advance.

It is important that every Democrat, or would-be Democrat is in attendance! A special invitation is issued to first time voters, or non-party affiliates who want to be involved, or observe.

We have in the Third Congressional District, the first ever, Democratic Congressman, and if you've been watching the news of late or reading your newspaper, you have seen the impact that Congressman Bill Orton is having in the Congress, in Washington, D.C. Although you rarely hear a freshman Congressman's name mentioned during their first term in office, Bill Orton has won a seat on several key committees and his voice is being heard. He is working especially hard for this county in many areas.

County Democrats need to ban together as never before. Two years passes very quickly, and although we know his record will speak for him, now is the time to get behind our Congressman that we might have a strong Democratic Party and strong voice to speak out in his support.

With the realignment of the legislative and congressional boundaries in Utah, and reapportionment of voters, there is now a chance once again for us to have representation for our county in the State Legislature and Congress. It should Democrats!

At the present time, Republicans control both houses of the Legislature, and have voting majorities both on committees and during the special session. Although, we may vote for the person of our choice locally, and the person that we know, who we may feel will do the better job, it does matter what our party affiliation is. Democrats need to be elected to state and national offices!

Winning the Third Congressional District, and other important state and local seats must be our goal. There has been, in off election years, as few as 10 people attending County Conventions. This is sad, so many issues are at stake. Come and support your party at the Democratic County Convention, April 18, middle school, 7 p.m. Let your voice be heard.
